Code of rules for participants in „glorious drive“ (drive in convoy) Rallye Rejvz

Elaborated to secure safety and eliminate risk of injury and material loss of glorious drive participants and spectators in the belief that excitement from competition shouldn't be stifled by adrenaline way of driving and fun, which does not have to be understood by public.

Activities, constrained by code of rules, are those that threaten with damage to injury, equipment and good name of medical community, organizers and co-organizers (State Police of Czech Republic, fire brigade, voluntary organizers and others) in eyes of public and lead to public disturbance immediately after the end of Rallye Rejvz.

Code of rules applies to all participants on glorious drive (especially competitors, accompanying persons, players, fans and organizers) and all cars in convoy (especially ambulances, private vehicles accompanying, motorcycles etc.).

Events, accidents, damage to a property and / or equipment, arising from a breach of this Code are not covered by insurance Rallye Rejvz.

It is forbidden, that participants of glorious drive will:

- sit on roof or hood of car during the drive,
- sway from vehicle with more than upper part of chest,
- get off or jump out of vehicle during glorious drive, not even when the convoy stops,
- do abnormal maneuvers, endangering other participants of convoy and spectators (for example Mexican wave, sudden deceleration, jumping in and out of moving vehicles),
- overrun each other or overrun accompanying vehicles (accredited television staff and accompanying police vehicles have an exception),
- extend convoy with extending of safe distance behind next vehicle without a serious cause,
- stopping at the side of the road during drive in convoy,
- spray spectators or other convoy participants with water, as joviality, which does not have to be understood,
- drink alcohol before and during glorious drive even if they don't drive

We accept „Code of Rules for participants in glorious drive (drive in convoy) Rallye Rejvz“ and we will behave by its rules.
